A Five-Step Plan To Transform Michigan's Economy & Create Jobs

The Michigan Turnaround Plan is a comprehensive strategy to transform Michigan's economy. It lays out the case for change, sets achievable goals, identifies specific action steps and explains the impact of change.

Five Steps To A Better Michigan

- Changing the Way We Manage Our Finances
- Right-sizing & Enacting Structural Budget Reforms
- Getting Michigan Competitive To Attract & Retain Jobs
- Making Investments That Create A Great Job Environment
- Accelerating Job Growth Through Innovation & Entrepreneurship

Important Facts to Know:

- Michigan lost more private sector jobs since the year 2000 than any other state with nearly 60% of all U.S. job losses since 2000 being in Michigan.
- Michigan businesses pay on average 3-4% more of their profits in taxes than the average of the “ten best” business tax and many peer states.
- Job provider ranking of Michigan’s business climate: 48th of 50 states.
- If Michigan were a “Top Ten” state in 2007, the per capita income of Michigan residents would have been $41,203 which is $6,780 more per person than the actual 2007 per capita income of $34,423.
